5. The Delinquent officer has submitted his representation to the show cause notice, stating that he has not committed any irregularity against to his legitimate duties and caused any loss to government properties and due to stress created by the disciplinary proceedings for no fault of him, he was affected by paralysis and recouped to some extent, and denied the charges framed against him. He has requested to pass favourable orders duly releasing the pension and gratuity in full, vide reference 7th cited.

6. Government, after careful examination of the matter, it is observed that the land measuring an extent of Ac. 5.00 Ravipadu Village was not assigned to the Accused Officer as alleged in Charge No.I. The said land was assigned to great grand father of the A.O in 1977 and later the assignee bequeathed to the Accused Officer when he was not Government servant. In such a case, the Accused Officer cannot be made responsible and punished. Similarly the charge No:III also does not stand to legal scrutiny as the tenants can be enrolled as members of the society as per Andhra Pradesh Co-operative Act. Since both charges No: 1 & 3 are not proved, Government have decided to take a lenient view and to award a punishment of 10% cut in pension for a period of one year against Sri K. Ramanaiah Chowdary, Village Revenue Officer (Retired). Accordingly, Government hereby order to impose a punishment of 10% cut in pension for a period of one year against Sri K. Ramanaiah Chowdary, Village Revenue Officer (Retired) under Rule 9 of Andhra Pradesh Revised pension Rules, 1980. The Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission have also agreed the above punishment.

7. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, A.P., Vijayawada shall take necessary action accordingly.
